

Bears In Lineup Against The Bears

Team Which Put Dayton To Rout Will Be Used Against Halas' Outfit

The same lineup which started against the Dayton Triangles here last Sunday, and which early in the game put the Ohioans to rout, will start against the Chicago Bears Sunday afternoon at Cubs' park, Chicago, according to announcement today. The Independents right now appear to be at the top of their form, and with every man in first class condition the Bears should be in for the most interesting afternoon of their career. The only semblance of an injury on the squad is the sprained thumb being nursed along by "Dutch" Lauer. However, this is not expected to handicap the Michigan flyer in the least.

Sunday's game is expected to start at 2:15 o'clock. This should give all Rock Island fans who desire the chance to catch one of the two evening trains back home to Rock Island. Others who desire to stay over in the big city for a few hours can make connections with the 1 o'clock a. m. train and reach here in time to get on the job early Monday morning.

Many fans will make the trip by automobile and taxicab. Overland parties are now being formed. These will find the going easier in Chicago, as the cars will provide transportation to and from the hotel to the park.

The Independents will leave on the 4:35 o'clock train tomorrow afternoon. This will put them in Chicago in plenty of time to get a good night's rest at the Clarendon Beach hotel, on the north side, where last year's team was quartered. The players included in the party will be Captain Jimmy Con-

The SPORT-O-GRAPH

Stories emanating from Chicago to the effect that the approaching game with the Independents is causing George Halas and his pet Bears some sleepless nights, can be taken with a grain of salt locally. As a matter of fact the Bears are not the worrying kind. Of course they realize that the Independents will give them about the most stubborn opposition of the season this year, but old lady luck has been tugging along with them hardly without a break for so long that the Bears feel confident enough.

There can be little doubt that the contest will be one of the hardest and bitterest engaged in by either team this season. A victory for either team by a large score would be the most surprising thing that possibly could happen.

On the basis of comparative scores, the game should be a romp for the Independents. But comparative scores have caused more upsets in football than any other factor, and here's hoping the Independents forget everything that has happened and think only of the present when they face the Chicago contingent. That 43 to 0 victory over Dayton and the 28 to 0 win from Rochester won't help the locals a bit when the referee blows his whistle.

The Independents have trained faithfully this week in preparation for what is the biggest game on the schedule. The precision and pep which characterized the attack against Dayton is still with the club. Never have plays been run off more smoothly.

GRID BOARD FEAST WILL START EARLY

The football program for Saturday afternoon, Sunday and the Argus Grid Player follows:

Saturday—Illinois vs. Chicago, at 2 o'clock.

Sunday—Rock Island Independents vs. Chicago Bears, at 2:15 o'clock.

Mr. Football Fan, remember well the starting hours for both of the football classics which will be reproduced, play by play, on the Argus' own special patented grid player. He who comes early will gain the advantage.

SALIENTS PLAN TO PUT STRONG TEAM IN FIELD

The Salient basketball team, of Rock Island, one of the strong junior teams in the city last year, re-organized last night in the Washington school gym and made plans for the coming season.

Charles Woodward of the Rock Island high school squad joined the team, giving the Salients one of the best floor men in the tri-cities. The Salients are captained by Bob Mickelson, last year's captain of the Washington school team.

The Salients are anxious to book games with any team averaging around 135 pounds, within a radius of 50 miles. Gardner Thomas, 1503 Twenty-ninth and -a-half street, Rock Island, is manager of the team and can be reached by phone, R. 1. 2443, evenings.

SCHLAIFER TO BE REAL TEST FOR LONDONER

But Omaha Hebrew Declares He Will End Argument With a Knockout.

THE CARD.

Billy Wells versus Morris Schlaifer, 10 rounds.

Billy Rolfe versus Archie Ammons, 6 rounds.

Johnny Showers versus Bob Chieftain, 4 rounds.

Young Moha versus Sailor Larkin, 4 rounds.

A certain Billy Wells of London, England, who holds the welter-weight championship of Europe, will learn tonight whether boxers of his country are in a class with fighters educated in American schools, for Wells will meet one of the most rugged welters in the country in a scheduled 10-round mill at the Coliseum when he stands toe to toe with Morris Schlaifer of Omaha.

True, Wells has met and defeated several of America's classiest performers, but whether he can stand the gauntlet against a rugged, hard-walloping battler of Schlaifer's caliber is a problem which only tonight's bout will solve.

Both in Great Form.

Both Schlaifer and the English ring warrior are in splendid condition. In statements to newspaper men this morning they declared they were ready for the tap of the bell and both expressed confidence of victory. Schlaifer, apparently, is keyed up for a knockout triumph. "I'm not out to outpoint this fellow in tonight's battle. I want to rock him to sleep. I'm fit and ready." That was as much as Morris had to say about the bout.

Wells, while realizing he will stack up against a rearing, tearing performer, but whether he can stand the gauntlet against a rugged, hard-walloping battler of Schlaifer's caliber is a problem which only tonight's bout will solve.

The men are to weigh in at 3 o'clock this afternoon. They are compelled to make 145 pounds at that hour. Davey Miller will referee the main event tonight.

Bout Hard to Do.

Tonight's clash between Wells and Schlaifer is a difficult one to do, and as a result there are numerous opinions on the probable outcome of the contest. There are plenty of fans who have Schlaifer doped to win via the knockout route, but there are equally as many who are firm in their convictions that the Briton will be the conqueror by a big margin. Different opinion in opinion has resulted in numerous friendly arguments with the result that the fans are on edge for the contest.

Schlaifer is expected to start after his opponent with the sound of the first gong in an effort to rock Wells into slumberland, but what style the Englishman will use against the Hebrew is more than any one but the boxer himself and his manager know. Wells talks but little about the card, answering all questions with a brief "I'll beat him."

Throng to See Show.

The fact that Legion officials were compelled to add several hundred additional reserved seats indicates that a record-breaking throng will witness tonight's show. Not since the first meeting of Pal Moore and Eddie Anderson has a Legion program attracted such attention, and it is very likely that all previous records for attendance will be shattered tonight.

Doors of the Coliseum will open at 7 o'clock. Between 1,200 and 1,500 general admission tickets will be sold before the window is closed. The 500 reserved seats which were unsold up to a late hour this afternoon will undoubtedly be snatched up tonight when the reserved seat window opens at 7:15 o'clock.

CARDS TO DRAW A LARGE CROWD

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Gridiron rooters from the north, south and west sides, from Evanston and from Gary, are preparing to turn out Sunday for the battle between the unbeaten Chicago Cardinals and Canton Bulldogs to be staged at Comiskey park. A big automobile parade forming at 1 o'clock at Michigan boulevard and Harrison street, will precede the demonstration at the park, where Captain Paddy Driscoll and Johnny Mohardt, the sensational halfbacks of the Cardinals eleven, will be honored by admirers.

Fifteen hundred choice seats have been reserved for the parade, each of whom will be presented a cardinal chrysanthemum.

Because of the well known power in the Canton line, the Cardinals plan to employ their speedy passing game against the visitors, who on a recent trip to Chicago defeated the Bears, 7 to 6. In practice this week Driscoll, Mohardt, Anderson and the McMahons have been concentrating on new aerial combinations that are calculated to battle Coach Guy Chamberlain's terror.

The Bulldogs are noted for their plunging attack, which features Fullback Doc Elliott of Lafayette, Halbaeks Robb of Penn State and Sachader of Christian Brothers and Quarterback "Woody" Roberts of the Navy.

SET BOWLING DATES.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 17.—The 1923 international bowling tournament was set for Feb. 9 to 19 inclusive.

With Exception of Leland Parkin, Big Ten Champions Are in Fit Condition.

Iowa City, Iowa, Nov. 17.—Twenty-seven players composed the University of Iowa football squad which left yesterday for Columbus, Ohio, where the 1921 western conference champions will meet Ohio State in the first football game ever played between two schools.

With the exception of Leland Parkin, regular quarter back, the Hawkeyes were in good condition. Despite the fact that Ohio State has not won a conference game this season, Coach Howard H. Jones said the Hawkeyes are expecting a hard battle.

Wade Jones shifts his lineup. Eddie Rife will start in Parkin's place against Ohio State.

PRINCETON AND YALE 40 YEARS RIVALS ON GRID

Have Met Annually Almost Uninterruptedly.

BY WALTER CAMP. (Copyright, 1922, by The Argus.) New York, N. Y., Nov. 17.—The Yale-Princeton football series is a classic which has continued almost uninterruptedly for over 40 years. There has always been the keenest kind of rivalry, but it has been friendly rivalry, with a fair field and no favor. Yale probably will go into the contest Saturday a slight favorite. But just when you think a Princeton team is done—look out. As Kipling says: "They're all of sand and ginger when alive, and they are generally shamming when they're dead."

Unless Wisconsin braces up considerably as compared with the way the team played last Saturday, Michigan should defeat the Madison aggregation decisively and easily. Michigan has two great players in Kipke in the backfield and Kirk, the star end. Tebell, while not the equal of Kirk, is good. Muirhead at tackle is a good lineman and Hoefield of Wisconsin, is a powerful guard. Wisconsin has rather the better of it with Barr at quarter, but Michigan has the better center in Blott. In the backfield Williams of Wisconsin is a strong line plunger, but is not so versatile as Kipke.

Will Chicago find trouble with Illinois as others have done? Stage's men ought to win, but Illinois has upset favorites in the past and seems to enjoy doing it. Notre Dame should defeat Butler, although colleges outside the conference, Butler and Wabash, have been playing good football this year.

Syracuse, if improvement is continued, should have the advantage over Colgate, but the Colgate attack as shown in the Princeton game will give Syracuse plenty to handle. Washington & Jefferson should be stronger than Pittsburgh who will be hampered by the absence of Captain Holleran. Penn State should prove victors over Pennsylvania.

In the south, Centre and Auburn should provide a good contest, with odds favoring the former. Vanderbilt and Georgia also should be a well contested match. Washington will have a good battle in the Georgetown-Bucknell meeting and Lexington will see interesting football when Kentucky meets Alabama. Tennessee and the University of the South will battle hard at Chattanooga.

California should defeat Nevada in the Pacific coast conference and Stanford should come through against Washington at Palo Alto. West Virginia ought to defeat Virginia, especially if the latter is coming along properly for the final game with Washington & Jefferson. Bates probably will be easy for the Army.

ILLINI READY FOR BIG GAME

Coach Zupke Has His Dope Upsetters on Edge to Give Maroons Great Battle.

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 17.—Coach Zupke put the finishing touches on the fighting Illini last night on Illinois field. They will rest tonight at the South Shore Country club before they start for the Midway Saturday forenoon. The squad has weathered the week well except for Bill Robinson, plucky little half back who served so well against Wisconsin. Bill was not in a suit and is likely to be out of the Midway battle.

The resourceful Zupke in seeking for a new half back turned Chris Woodward into one in the twinkling of an eye. Woodward has been laid up since the Michigan game. The dope is that he will start against Chicago to pave the way for Cliff Hapenny as the lanky back cannot stand the gauntlet of an entire contest. Woodward's weight, experience, and speed should make him a big help in the back field if he is able to play up to form.

Coolidge has been well this week and will get a chance if any of the guards falter or are injured, it is even reported that Zupke will let out Big Jim McMillen until John Thomas enters the game. This is hardly credited, however. Sam Hill was at work again last night and will sub for Heine Schultz at full back.

ROCKNE REFUTES RUMOR OF BREAK AT NOTRE DAME

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 17.—H. H. Rockne, director of athletics at Notre Dame university last night denied that there was any foundation for published reports that Notre Dame was to break off football relations with West Point. "I know of no reason for such a report being circulated," he said.

These reports had much circulation in the east, particularly New York.

DIXON FOOTBALL TEAM SIGNS TWO

Dixon, Ill., Nov. 17.—M. J. (Red) Dalton, of Beloit, Wis., former star member of the Notre Dame backfield, and who has played with Racine, has joined the Dixon American legion football team, and will be in the backfield the remainder of the season. Joe Weidner, for three years a prominent cog in the Columbia university football machine, has also been signed for a place in the line.

MOLINE HIGH HOPES TO MAKE UP FOR DEFEAT

Contest With Peoria at Bowling Field Promises to Be Fought Bitterly.

The high school football attraction of class is offered tri-city fandom at Bowling field tomorrow. The 1921 Maroon and White warriors, in the effort to retrieve the glory lost in the Champaign battle, will endeavor to be at their best and send Peoria home dejectedly trimmed.

The Moline second team, too, will lend its support to the gala festivities, with the last Moline eleven furnishing the opposition.

Games open at 12:45. The first game starts at 1:30. The main contest is scheduled to begin not later than 2:30. The Augustana college band will furnish music.

About the strongest evidence as to the strength of the Peoria city aggregation received hereabouts is the result of the tilt with Urbana a week ago. Urbana won, 6 to 0, but it was a fluke victory. Peoria threatened to score time and again. Once Peoria crossed the goal line only to lose the ball on a technicality. Several spectacular runs were followed off by the Tractor outfit.

Coach Fellows of LaSalle high school predicts that Moline would beat Peoria, but he also predicted that the Sennett tribe would vanquish Champaign.

Both teams are in a revengeful mood. Both were unexpectedly humiliated last Saturday and will fight their utmost to avenge their defeats.

MOHAWKS AND JUNIORS MEET

The Mohawks and Independent Juniors, both Rock Island lightweight teams, will clash Sunday afternoon at Bowling field, Moline, in a contest the promises to have an important bearing on the city championship. The winner will probably meet the Greenbush A. C. for the title.

The Mohawks expect to repeat last year's victory over the Juniors. They have taken on new strength recently in the signing of Dean and Carlson, linemen. Coach James is drilling the Mohawks nightly in an effort to have them in the best possible shape for the Juniors. The Juniors are also putting in some hard ticks and should be at their best. The teams will average about 145 pounds.

The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.
